John Doe
Mrs. Etter
Communications/ 2nd Hour
10 December 2014

Citations

1. Jack C. Greene states in his book Nuclear War, “Now picture the United States one or two weeks after a full-scale attack against major cities. About fifty percent of the population would have survived” (25).

2. “A German physicist named Albert Einstein did not know it at the time, but he provided the world with basic fundamentals needed to build nuclear weapons when he published ‘Special Theory of Relativity’ in 1905,” according to the article “Nuclear Weapons.”

3. “The first atomic bomb was detonated as a test in Alamogordo, New Mexico, on July 16, 1945” (“Nuclear”).

4. In his article “Humanity Can Survive,” Jack C. Greene says, “The hydrogen uses the energy released when nuclei of hydrogen are united” (72).

5. “The fission bomb uses the energy released when nuclei of heavy elements such as plutonium split apart” (Greene, “Humanity” 74).

6. Bill Gertz states, “The U.S. needs to accept that most countries are stockpiling weapons.”

General Guidelines:

- Double-space
- Type OR in blue/ black ink
- Use complete sentences
- Arrange citations in the order in which they will appear in your speech
- Every fact/stat/opinion/etc. spoken in the speech must also be listed on the Citations Page
- Every fact/stat/opinion/etc. listed on the Citations Page must also be spoken in the speech
- Minimum of ten citations required; 15-30 citations are common
- Computer generated sources such as Databases and the internet do not list page numbers
- Citations Page should be placed on top of the Works Cited Page.
  - Both DUE on the day of the speech; one will NOT be accepted without the other!
Works Cited

--------

General Guidelines:

- Double-space
- Type OR use blue/ black ink
- Indent after the first line of each entry
- Do not number or bullet the entries
- Arrange the entries in alphabetical order
- Minimum of four sources required; Two must be non-internet
- No Encyclopedia, Wikipedia, or the Bible
- All sources listed here must be used on the Citations Page(s) (and in the speech) at least once!
- Works Cited Page should be placed underneath the Citations Page(s).
- Both DUE on the day of the speech; one will NOT be accepted without the other!